Day 1: Arrival in Casablanca

Your private tour begins upon arrival in Casablanca, where an AtlasTripTour representative will greet you and transfer you to a luxury hotel. After settling in, explore Casablanca's main attractions, including the Hassan II Mosque, renowned for its stunning oceanfront location and intricate design. Enjoy a relaxing evening at the Corniche, Casablanca's vibrant waterfront, with dinner at a high-end restaurant.

Day 2: Casablanca to Rabat

Travel to Rabat, the capital city, known for its historical and modern attractions. Explore the Royal Palace, the Kasbah of the Udayas, and the ancient ruins of Chellah. Enjoy a private guided tour, and spend the evening wandering through Rabat's medina, shopping for traditional Moroccan crafts, and dining at a local restaurant.

Day 3: Rabat to Fez via Meknes and Volubilis

Journey from Rabat to Fez with stops in Meknes and Volubilis. In Meknes, explore landmarks such as the Bab Mansour gate and the Mausoleum of Moulay Ismail. Continue to Volubilis, an ancient Roman city with well-preserved ruins and mosaics. Arrive in Fez by evening and check into your hotel, preparing for a day of exploring the city's historical and cultural sites.

Day 4: Explore Fez

Discover Fez, one of Morocco's most historic cities, with a private guided tour. Explore the medina, a UNESCO World Heritage site, with its narrow streets and bustling souks. Visit the Al Quaraouiyine University, the Bou Inania Madrasa, and the traditional tanneries. Enjoy a visit to the Nejjarine Museum of Wooden Arts and Crafts, showcasing traditional Moroccan craftsmanship.

Day 5: Fez to Chefchaouen

Travel to Chefchaouen, a picturesque town renowned for its blue-painted streets and tranquil atmosphere. Enjoy a private guided tour of the town's medina, local markets, and scenic spots. The town's unique blue hue and stunning mountain views offer a serene escape from the larger cities, perfect for relaxation and photography.

Day 6: Chefchaouen to Marrakech

Arrive in Marrakech, known for its vibrant colors and lively atmosphere. Explore key landmarks such as the Koutoubia Mosque, the Saadian Tombs, and the Bahia Palace. Experience the energy of Jemaa el-Fnaa square, a UNESCO World Heritage site with street performers, food stalls, and traditional musicians. Enjoy a luxurious dinner at a top restaurant in Marrakech.

Day 7: Departure from Marrakech

On your final day, enjoy some leisure time in Marrakech. Visit the Majorelle Garden, a beautifully landscaped botanical garden, or explore the souks for unique souvenirs.
